PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 23rd July 1866.

Read the following letter from J. D. ROBINSON, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 13th July 1866, No. 190:—

1. I have the honor, with reference to the Proceedings of the Board, dated 3rd May last, No. 3,132, and to my letter of the 26th idem, No. 131, to report that Babu Row has been tried before the Session Court, and fully acquitted on the charges upon which he was committed.

* Dated 6th July 1866, No. 66.

A copy of the Proceedings* of the Session Judge in the case is enclosed for the information of the Board.

2. I have re-instated Babu Row as Tahsildar of the Chittoor Taluk; but concurring very fully in the Session Judge's remarks, (paragraph 3 of the Proceedings,) which convey a well-deserved censure, I propose to regulate the allowances, during the period of suspension, on the principles laid down in Rule 2 of the set embodied in Board's Circular Order, No. XVIII. of 1866. I have accordingly directed that Babu Row should draw Rupees 75 a month for the period he has been under suspension, and that the remainder of his salary, viz., Rupees 100, should go to remunerate the officer who was in charge of the Taluk.

3. It was my intention to have compelled Babu Row to retire on pension, as, besides having an unsteadiness of hand, which must greatly incapacitate him for the conduct of Magisterial inquiries under the present Criminal Laws, he bears a character which makes it desirable that he should retire from public life as soon as may be. But as Babu Row represents that there are only four months wanting to complete the term which would entitle him to the higher rate of pension, and has done on the whole good service during a very long term of years, I have willingly acceded to his request, that he may be allowed to remain in office until he completes the remainder of his time.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Proceedings of the Session Court of Chittoor, dated the 5th July 1866, No. 66.

Read Calendar, No. 118 of 1866, committed to this Court by the Assistant Magistrate of North Arcot.

1. The Session Judge, in a case of so great importance, involving as it does the reputation of an officer of the standing of the accused, is of opinion that a mere copy of the Calendar of the case will not afford the information which, as is especially due to the accused, should be laid before his superior Officer, the Magistrate of the District.

2. The Session Judge has much satisfaction in stating that he does not believe that the accused examined the Munsiff of Muthukur, Subba Reddy, on oath, as stated by the Police witnesses, a statement strangely corroborated to some extent by the Sub-Magistrate's records, and that in this opinion the assessors fully concurred.

3. That there were irregularities in the Sub-Magistrate's procedure is obvious, and it would further appear that he showed culpable indifference and neglect in not taking immediate and active steps for the discovery of the murderers of Nasu Ramaana and others, who, there is good reason to believe, were killed by poisoning. The Sub-Magistrate has thus to some extent brought upon himself the very heavy misfortune of being tried on so serious charges before the Session Court.

4. The Session Judge is, however, decidedly of opinion, as were the assessors, that Babu Row is innocent of the charges laid against him.

5. The Session Judge has observed, with pleasure, the labour and care given to the case by the Assistant Magistrate. He could not, upon the evidence before him, do otherwise than commit the case for trial, as is obvious from the fact of the accused having reserved his defence. In so doing, the accused was not well advised.
