Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith 90 Registers, containing the names of individuals who have applied to be admitted to the benefits of the Compassionate allowance, sanctioned in the Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 14th February 1864.

2. There are 18 more applicants for the allowance, whose Registers will be submitted shortly. There are also 4 applicants for gratification, whose names will be included in a separate list,
and submitted at the same time.

3. The delay in the submission of these Registers, is attributable to most of the applicants residing at a great distance in the Taluqs, and to a few only coming at a time to have their descriptions taken.
