for Compassionate Allowance led to his removal from his post of Recordkeeper on Pt 60, to a post on half the pay, as step which was followed by his immediate removal from the service on Medical Certificate.

His average pay for the past five years has been Pt 52-13-4, and the one third pension to which under the rules he is eligible would be Pt 17-8-0.

Considering however that in a great measure owing to his carelessness and neglect of duty, the Government have been grossly defrauded, the Government resolve to pass him a reduced pension of Rupees ~~12~~ ¹² Twelve per mensem, with effect from the 2nd November 1867 the day following the date of his certificate

These frauds, as I recollect, were reported by the Collector to be such that they could not have been perpetrated without the active collusion of the Cutcherry servants - two persons of pension - I was criminally sentenced and the Head Supple Clerk, Mr. [?], was dismissed from the public service. - The applicant for this case is said by the Civil Surgeon to be "incapacitated" by old age & rheumatism.
His age is 52. He does not seem to have been treated by the Dr. properly and certificate. The pay drawn by him after that date will be recovered from him. AW

* Rheumatism can always be alleged by a malingerer. It seems now that rather than leave the man adrift, a chance has been made for him of coming on the Pension list - the Post-interest being that little reported - He could have been very bad with his rheumatism for the Collector says he kept him on for a month after the Medical Certificate had been granted, to complete some work on a Subordinate Employed - Under all these circumstances of the case there should be a special reduction of the pension payable (Pt 17-9-9) than the sum of Pt 12. - He would be fortunate in getting 12 Rs a month for the case AW I agree with Mr. Phillips.
