Deposition made on oath by Narayana Gandu Inhabitant of Mondemorayi in the Taluk of Daracote before the Acting Tahsildar & Sub Magistrate of Gumsur on the 21st December 1867

Some years past (I cannot say how many) when Mr Campbell had formed the Sibbundy at the prevalence of disturbances in the Gumsur Taluk, I was entertained in the services as Sibbundy Sepoy salary Rs 4 1/2 & I served as such about 1 1/2 year under the Command of Gopising Sirdar at the mokams of Aska & Ganjam. As I was unaccustomed to drill I was reduced to a Police Peon (Rs 3 1/2) & disciplined under the same Sirdar for about 3 years at the mokam of Ganjam. I reentered as Sibbundy Sepoy & served as such for about 9 years and as Lance Naik for about a year and as Naik for 4 or 5 years Mr Macdonald transferred me to the post of Duffadar under the Purnagoda Police and I served as such one year & then was sent back as the Naik. I was a Naik Duffadar for 6 or 7 years then a Sibbundy Sirdar for about 5 years when Captain Stuart was pleased to appoint me a Head Constable in the recently formed Police whence I was dismissed

dismissed the service. I was never out of services from my first appointment as Sibbundy Sepoy & that last as Hd Constable

I forgot when detailing my service before the Tahsildar to mention my services as Police Peon on Rs 3 1/2 and as Purnagada Police Duffadar. I think I mentioned this to the Tahsildar who advised me to report this to Huzoor on the ground of his having already submitted all of my papers to Huzur Accordingly I made a petition on this to the Deputy Collector. I think I may have perhaps failed to mention in that petition my service as Purnagada Duffadar, but the Government Record will shew that I had been so, I cannot ascertain in what year I held the post for which reference may be made to the Government Record. But I am fully aware that there is no break in my services

The services of the Russellcondah District Munsiff's Peon have been proved from the Records of the Ganjam Agency.—

11 There are no records to examine.— vide Collector's remark. A statement on oath has been made by Narrain Goudu before the Acting Tahsildar and Sub Magistrate of Gumsur.

14. Application was made to Government by the late Agent Mr Forbes on the 5th September 1866. On the 27th November of the same year you desired the submission of regular application for gratuity for these men. A good deal of time has been taken up in searching the records here and at Russellcondah for the services of these men but without success.

As for the Munsiff's Peon he was trying to get a situation and it was only when he failed to secure one on account of his age, he thought of applying for a gratuity—

15. They have no testimonials from the head of their offices. Translations of affidavits are sent.—

17. The Superintendent of Police's memo is enclosed.—

18. Discharge Certificates for the 4 Police men are herewith sent.—
