Collector of Salem

Sir

With reference to your *Enclosures returned tocket No 347, dated 17th Instant, herewith
I have the honor to inform you, that it appears from the Talug Service Register, that Annajee Rous was not degraded on the 12th August 1859 from Rs 16 to Rs 14, but that he was, on account of ill-health and at his own request, transferred from the Collector's office at Ooroor to the Paramatty Taluk.

2 With regard to the question as to why Annajee Rous was retained in the Government Service from the 15th September to 31st October 1867, when the medical certificate was dated 15th September, I beg to state that as will be seen from the date under my initials on the certificate, it did not reach me until the 5th October. As the Tasildar was then engaged in preparing several Inam cases and as Amajee Rao was the Jumastah who was best acquainted with the details of these particular cases, I allowed him at the Tasildar's request and taking in to consideration that he was not suffering from any disease in particular, but that he was only getting too old to work, to remain on until the end of the month and his resignation was accepted on the 1st November.

3 Amajee Rao was not thrown out of employ by reduction of Establishment and therefore received no gratuity. As the head "Reduction of Establishment" was struck out with red ink and as it is not stated in the instructions that the foot-note referring to that head was to be erased, it was left untouched. It has now been struck out.

I have &c.
