Certified that all the services and leaves &c entered in the Register have been proved from the Government Records with the exception of those entered in Red Ink. Some of the dates &c which it was not possible to verify from the existing Records are left blank. True translation of Statements made before the Sub Magistrates, by peons nos 1, 2 & 4 are attached in support of the entries which have not been proved from the Records.

The Records afford no explanation for the apparent degradation respecting nos. 1, 2 & 4.

The delay in the submission of this application was altogether caused by the difficulty experienced in verifying the services of these peons from the Records in the Huzur and Tahsil offices.

S. S. Panneval

Collector of Ganjam

Deposition made on oath by Chikatta⁵⁰ Maribodu an inhabitant of Kanaka before Govindu Nursimhulu Rentulu the Sub Magistrate of Purushottapore on the 3rd March 1868.

I served in Government employ for about 36 years. At first I was appointed as Magisterial Peon in the Tahsildars Cutcherry at Pubba-kondah on a salary of 4 Rs per mensem and served for some years. Afterwards transferred to Ichapore Talug, there also I have been as a Magisterial peon on a salary of Rs 3-8- where I served for about 6 years. After that I was again transferred and served in Pubbakondah Talug for about a year and a half. I was transferred to Senior Assistant Collector's Muzur, where also I served for about 5 years drawing salary at Rs 3-8-". Then I was again transferred on the same salary to Pubbakondah Talug. I served there till my place was abolished. In this manner my total service is 32 years. I have no papers to state the dates. Except the last abolition, I never took leave, nor was dismissed during the time of my service from the beginning to the last abolition. My father's name was Ainnah. I am of Telugu Caste, Ramamija sect and my age is 64 years. I am unable to give the dates, but I served only in one situation and have been transferred now and then. I was appointed when I was 25 years of age, but I was never promoted.

Deposition made on oath before the Sub Magistrate of Narasannapeta on the 2nd day of March 1868 by ^{Saganajhalu son of Mutiyala} Mutiyala, Narasanna, inhabitant of Akkurada in Chicacole Talug. Caste, Telaga, Sect, Vishnu - Profession Peon - Age 70 years.

I was first employed by Government for 4 years as a Peon on Rs 5 in the Civil Armed Establishment. Soon after its abolition I was appointed as a Peon on Rs 2½ in the Salt Establishment of Wommaravilli; after two years service in it I was promoted as a guard Peon on Rs 3½ in the Salt Establishment of Nowpadah; after 6 years, was transferred as a Police Peon on the same pay in Salt Establishment of Madada. I have served in it 19 or 20 years. While Mudayagiri Rajaram was Tahsildar of that Taluk, my post as well as those of other peons was abolished. My total service is 31 or 32 years. I recollect that I was at first entertained as a Peon in Civil Armed Establishment in the year 1832. I have no orders &c to prove my service and I cannot give the respective dates, neither can I guess them. No leaves with or without substitutes have been enjoyed by me since I was entertained in the Public Service. I was never dismissed nor fined. The very day after date of the abolition of Civil Armed Force, I was employed as a Peon on Womaravilli Salt Establishment and so from one appointment to another, as to have no break in my service.
