 { Memo. }

The undersigned has the honor to request that he may be permitted to observe with reference to para 2 of Proceedings of Government dated 1st June 1868 No. 164 Pension Department, that the name of Shik Mucktoom (the case the para refers to) was only introduced at the end of his report dated 9th May 1868 No. 72, in order that Government might not be misled as to the reason why, with reference to Inspector General of Sails docket dated 6th May 1868 No. 29 (accompanying his report) forwarding to this Office three applications for pension, only two had been referred to Government for final orders; viz that the third case Shik Mucktoom's had been returned to the Inspector General as in ineligible for either pension or gratuity. The Government were furnished with this Office report on the remaining case on the 28th May 1868 No. 77.

2. And further with reference to para 3 of the same proceedings the undersigned begs to be allowed to explain, that in Examiner of Claims, accordance with the order of Government dated 21st April 1863 No. 103, it has been the invariable practice of this Office, since the issue of that order, to return to the

3. But if the Government are of opinion after this explanation that ineligible as well as eligible applications should be forwarded for their final disposal, the undersigned will observe the greatest care in carrying out their instructions.

Read the following letter

From the Offg. Examiner of Claims (Here entered 5th June 1868 No. 570)

Order thereon 11th June 1868 No. 177

The docket alluded to runs "The undersigned has the honor to forward the accompanying applications &c" and makes no allusion to the number of applications. There was therefore nothing before Government to which the closing portion of the report related.

2. The order of the 21st April 1863 should have been formally cancelled. It was brought to notice, but it was believed believed that it had become a dead letter, since in many instances applications had been sent in with the report that the applicant was ineligible. The practice of the Examiner's office would seem not to have been invariable in the matter.

3. The order in this Department No. 113 of the 21st April 1863 is cancelled.
