Replies to remarks on the gratuity registers of certain persons, dated 10 June 1868

8 The alleged services of these applicants are proved from the records.

16 Remarks at the foot of the registers have been scored out as they did not receive any gratuity.

19 The services of these individuals are proved from the records, and therefore no testimonials of character or affidavits signed by the magistrate in support of their service are obtained from them.

20 Most of these applicants appear to have put in application to the gratuity only in 67 & 68 as they were not aware of the gratuity rules, and their applications were not early submitted owing to ~~the~~ pressure of work. They are being disposed of vigorously now.

23 All the applicants applied for gratuity before 31st March 1868.

24 All the corrections noted in pencil have been made accordingly.

25 V. Kesavulu held only the temporary post of peon from 5th May to 31st August 1838 - such service will for the future be excluded.

26 Mahatadu is a village servant immediately under the orders of Tahsildars - They attended to the duties of Revenue Collections &a as peons - This Office was included in the sanctioned Reorganization of the District at that period.

The Governor in Council sanctions the grant under the old rules of the gratuities specified to the twenty four individuals named in the margin who have been thrown out of employ in consequence of reductions of Establishment.

2. The service of Peon Tati Venkatanarsu No. 3 prior to his dismissal for misconduct has been excluded from the period counting for Gratuity.

It

3. It would have been more convenient if, in place of submitting nine distinct applications, these 24 peons'-names had been included in one extended application form. This would have saved labour in the District Office, the Office of Audit, and the Govt. Office.
