Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 14th July 1868.

Read the following letter from the Superintending Engineer, 2nd Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department; dated Camp Masulipatam, 25th June 1868, No. 41.

By the Superannuation Pension Rules of the Uncovenanted Service, it appears that "service as substitute does not count towards pension." I have the honor to request information whether the service of a man temporarily filling a full vacancy, and who had previously held a substantive appointment, would come within this category.

As the question raised within refers to a point of general application, this letter will be transferred to the Public Department for disposal.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
1st July 1868.

(Signed) C. A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,
Secretary to Government, P. W. D.

ORDER THEREON, 14th July 1868, No. 211.

The attention of the Superintending Engineer, 2nd Division, is called to the Notification published at page 380 of the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 21st February 1868, containing a letter of the Government of India giving the ruling on the point to which he alludes.

2. With reference to the case put, if the person who had previously held a substantive appointment, and now temporarily fills a full vacancy, continues to hold his substantive appointment (though acting elsewhere), he is entitled to pension on the value of his substantive appointment only. If he has fully vacated his substantive appointment, he will not be entitled to pension for the time he is acting, unless he is confirmed in the post, his appointment being antedated to the time of his first appointment to act. In that case the salary of the confirmed acting appointment will be the value on which pension will ultimately be calculated, if the period fall within the last five years of service.

3. Abstract references of this nature are much to be deprecated. They are rarely correctly stated, and it takes quite as little time to say A was Overseer, B Supervisor, both permanent, &c., &c., as to try to reduce to condensed language the statement of the case.
