Memorandum.

This is an application from the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor for compassionate allowances to two men, a Carpenter and a Blacksmith on the Govt House establishment, each having been 33 years employed and drawing 14 Rs a month. The application is under the recent despatch of the Secretary of State granting allowances not over Rs 12 to servants who have completed 30 years service, thrown out of employ by reduction of establishment. The Examiner of Claims seems to have asked for the order of Govt sanctioning the reduction and was told
