The Collector is requested to return this and a similar Memo from this Office dated 30th September '67, as the undersigned cannot submit the applications to Govt. without them.

Replies to Memo dated January 1868.

(11) The Records do not assign causes for the degradation of Peon, Mahommad Galib.

(13) Printed form of Application for gratuity to Venkatramudu is submitted under the old rules as required.

(20) Venkatramudu died without applying for pension; — but with reference to Government Endorsement on Petition dated 6th March 1867 presented by the deceased's widow claiming a pension on his behalf; the application was submitted - and Mahommad Galib had not applied for pension before 1867.

(23) Records shew only that Bangaru's son was appointed to the duty.

of his father, but whether in consequence of resignation or other cause does not appear Venkatramudu was removed for negligence in guarding a suspected party - very likely he was dismissed or was suspended and then again re employed.

This memo together with a similar one dated 30th September 1867 is herewith returned.

Report of the Officiating Examiner of Claims

The services of K. Venkataramudu late a peon on the Establishment of the Collector of Nellore, having been verified from the records of the Col his widow will be eligible under Government endorsement (upon petition No. 685 of 1867) dated 28th March 1867 to a gratuity of Rs. 11-4-" equal to three months salary under the old rules for her deceased husband's service of years 6. 3. 20 vizt. from 12th July 1854 as his former service vizt. from 1st June 1822 to 18th May 1853 was vitiated by a break caused by removal from Office. Should Government think that the break in question was on suspension, but not dismissal, neither of which is clear, the widow will then be eligible to a Compassionate allowance of Rs. 2-8-" a month from 11th December 1863 to the date of her husband's demise under the above endorsement.

The cause of delay in submission of application is explained by the Collector in his memos dated 17th September 1867 and 19th May 1868 herewith accompanying.

It will be observed from the above memo dated 19th May/68 that the applicant died before application for gratuity was made.

Order thereon 5th August 1868 No. 252.

The above are applications submitted ~~from~~ the Collector of Nellore for Compassionate Allowance and gratuities for three Peons thrown out of employment in the general revision of Establishments.

2. Mohamed Galib is stated ~~seems~~ to have served 31y. 10m. 3d, and his conduct was good. He is eligible to Compassionate Allowance of Rupees 2-8-0 which the Government grant him from the 11th December 1863.

3. Guggilam Bungaram served in all 34y. 5m. 11d, but in 1833 he resigned in favor of his son, who served till 1836 and died; on which the father took up the post again. No Explanation is offered of this but light is thrown on the matter by the fact that he is entered as being in 1867, 95 years of age, hence in 1833 he would be 61 and probably was thought to be superannuated. He has 24 years of service after this break, and for this, he is eligible to a gratuity of Rupees (22-8-0) twenty two and Annas eight or 6 months pay, which the Government are pleased to grant him.

4. Kotapati Vencataramudu was a peon for 37 years, but in 1853 was removed for neglect of duty and not reemployed for 14 months. Only 6. y. 3 m. 20 d. of his service can count for pension, and this entitles him only to a gratuity of Rupees (11-4-0) Eleven and Annas four which is granted. It appears that this man died some time ago. The gratuity will be paid to his widow.

5. The attention of the Collector is called to the following absurd entry in the applications for the first two persons above mentioned - "No leaves other than casual, Previlege, or Preparatory were enjoyed by this Peon" - The fact being that Casual leave alone is granted to Peons. The form used is not that prescribed by Government.
