Accountant General's Remarks: - The above is shown by the accompanying Medical Certificates - Services in the old Police Force maintained by local inquiries - From 1862 onwards not nominally entered in any of our accounts for reasons seen collected in letter dated 23rd February 1868 - 1871 to the Chief of Police, Hyderabad. The whole is owing to the parties not having applied for gratuity until March 1868. As to the amount - It is stated that it was owing to his sickness and search of employment elsewhere and on hearing that gratuity was being paid he has come forward - No 2 & 3, that owing to sickness he was unable to come and apply and on hearing the final order published in the District Gazette he has come forward -

It is hereby certified that no gratuity was drawn by the applicant on reduction of Establishment in the year. It is certified that gratuity having been granted was refunded to the amount of Rs. A. P.
Order sanctioning payment of gratuity was As. P.
Amount of gratuity granted was Rs. As. P.
Refund of gratuity was credited to the account for the month of 186
