Memo.

With reference to the letter of the Examiner of Claims dated 20th December 1867, the Acting Civil Judge of Mangalore has the honor to retransmit the paper therewith received, with the Register of Application for gratuity duly corrected, and to state as follows.

2 With regard to item No. 8. the applicant's services, as entered in the Register, are proved from the records.

3 In regard to item No. 11, it appears that the post held by the Applicant on Rupees 17½ on being first entertained in the service, was in the Commissioners Court at Tellicherry then temporarily constituted for the disposal of the remaining suits after the abolition of the Provincial Court. With the abolition of the Commissioners Court, he became out of employ. His continuous service therefore begins from the 4th May 1847. As from this date up to 31st March 1851 he served in place of a Gumastha, who had been temporarily transferred to the Assistant Judges Court then established, he was on the said Gumastas return appointed and not degraded, to the 6th Gumastaship on Rs. 3-8-0. From the 11th January 1859 to 28th February 1862.

* Returning Register of application for gratuity for the 2nd 21st 1868

Recd 68-2045
L. Bell

he appears to have been acting for a Gunnashla, promoted to the Additional Principal Sadr Amin's Court then temporarily established, and returned to his former post on the 1st March 1862 on the reversion of the permanent incumbent.

In regard to item No. 9, as the Applicant's service is proved from the records, and as there is nothing on record unfavorable to his character, no further remark seems to be necessary.

5 In regard to item No 20, it is to be observed that after he was thrown out of employ the applicant was in hopes of being re employed, and therefore did not immediately apply for gratuity and after he did apply, some time was lost in obtaining from the records the information requisite for the preparation and submission of his application.

6 Lastly with regard to item P.23, it is to be stated that the applicant appears to be entitled to a gratuity of Rupees 66 and not 55 under the old rules under which the recommendation in his behalf was made. Vide para 1 of the order of Government 14th April 1866 P.43. It is also to be observed that the remark in item P.23 is unintelligible as the form in which the application has been submitted is the one prescribed in supercession of all others at page 631 of the 2nd

Vol of the Gazette for 1866.

No. 762-
REPORT OF THE Examiner of Claims.

Years. Months. Days.

Service qualifying for pension is proved for a total period of...

Applicant is eligible to a gratuity of Rupees equal to months' salary under Clause Section of the Revised Pension Rules.

The applicant's service having been proved from the records of this Office and those of the Civil Court of Mangalore he is eligible to a gratuity of Rs. 55 equal to 5 months' salary under the old rules for his service of years 15. 5. 0 exclusive of his service of 8 months in the Commissioner's Office, and 3 years, 10 months, and 28 days in acting appointment which were of temporary nature.

The explanation given by the Civil Judge in para 6 of his Memo dated 20th June 1868 with reference to the cause of delay in the submission of application until 21st September 1867 is herewith forwarded.

It will be observed from item No. 23 of the Printed Memo from this Department dated 20th December 1867 herewith accompanying that the Civil Judge was requested to submit a Revised printed form of application for gratuity under the old rules, but he has not done so for the reasons stated by him. It will be seen that the Judge's reply is dated 20th June 1868, and on account of the delay that has already caused the papers are forwarded as they are.
