1 The delay in the transmission of these registers is partly owing to the individuals having been sent to the Taluqs in which they had served in order that their services might be verified by the Taluq records.

2 Mark Rowlin, after having served 43 years and odd in the Revenue Department, was prior to the revision of Taluq establishments enlisted in the Mofussil Police and was discharged from it in consequence of an excess in the strength of the force.

His register of application has been prepared agreeably to Government order no- dated 7th December 1867. —
