Vide your Office letter of the 9th March 1868.

With respect to items Nos. 8, 9 & 19 an original Communication from my acting Sub Collector dated 18th April 1868 No. 101 is herewith submitted together with the deposition or affidavit given by the applicant Khasim Khan. In a list received from the Caroor Tahsildar in 1861, prepared from the records of his Office, showing the names of the persons who were thrown out of employ in consequence of the reduction of Establishment, Khasim Khan's services are exhibited as extending over a period of 39-^{Years} 7-^{Months} 29-^{Days}, commencing from 11th March 1821 to 11th December 1860, but the actual period according to correct Calculation amounts to years 39-9-^{Mo} 1 as now entered in the list.

As regards the delay adverted to in No. 20, I have to state that the applicant ceased to do duty in December 1860. But the order of the Government of India authorizing the grant of Compassionate allowance to persons thrown out of employ on the reduction of establishment, was received in February 1864. At that time Khassim Khan was in the Service of the Estate of the Audiputty Minor Polygar under the management of the Court of wards, and on that account, the then Sub Collector omitted his name from the list of persons entitled to Compassionate allowance. Towards the end of 1865, however, Khassim Khan presented a petition to the late Collector, requesting that he might be recommended for a Compassionate allowance. This was forwarded to the Sub Collector for report, who said as the applicants Service in the Polygar was not a Government one, he did not see any objection to his getting a Compassionate allowance. This reply was received in February 1866, and the requisite register was sent to your office in March following. Mr Grant's letter and the register therewith sent were returned by you for additional information, which was duly supplied to you in his letter N^o 20 of the 21st May 1866. But the register above referred to was retained here thro' inadvertence, and it does not appear that any further orders in the matter were received from your Department. In January 1868, Khassim Khan appeared before my predecessor to know the result of his application, and Mr Grant then supplied you with the requisite papers.

Your letter to which this is a reply is returned with its inclosures.
