Shaik Mucktoom. 10

The cause of delay in submitting the application for gratuity on behalf of Shaik Mucktoom was that his widow was led to believe that no gratuity would be granted, and left Bellary and she was living in some remote part of the District and casually hearing that gratuities had been paid to other jail persons, she came back to Bellary and submitted her claims.

Sir

Adverting to your Memo No 670 of the 30th ultimo regarding the late Sandmurry Shait Muchloom. I have the honor to inform you.

1. That it does not appear from the records that he made any application for either gratuity or Compensate allowance during his life time, but that application for gratuity was made on his behalf by the then Session Judge of Bellary, His widow however having casually heard that Government had granted gratuities to a number of other Jail peons who together with her late husband were reduced on the introduction of the new Police, put in her claims also for the same.

2. I cannot say why my Predecessor applied for gratuity instead of a Compensatory allowance.

3. Suggoomah the widow of the late Shaik Muckloom states her husband died on the 18th March 1865.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant.
