Sir

I have the honor to submit a Register of application on behalf of Mayandiswami, late Duffa-dar on the Establishment of the Lower Solio Amem, Madras, for a compassionate allowance under the orders of Government of India dated 11th December 1863 No 6251.

1. The applicant's services are proved by the Records.

2. His application was presented on the 2nd March 1868 within the time fixed by Government.

3. I have not deducted the applicant's service before 22 years of age, as the rules disallowing service before 22 years of age only relate to Pensioners applied for under the Pension rules.

The applicant a few months after he was thrown out of employ was appointed as a person to superintend the working of scavenger carts paid by the Town funds. & is still employed under the Municipality. He has not therefore presented an application before this. But as his present employment is not under Government the Collector admitted his application & I therefore submit it herewith for the orders of Government.
