Although I am confident Your Honor would shew me some means of livelihood when I left Scotland Secured for so doing yet the inevitable difficulty I am now feeling from want of maintenance induces me to push forward my earnest solicitation, for your favourable consideration with all I would not so particularize any my past services and the situation which I was eventually promoted because I had already brought them to your notice by my Memorial enclosed It is to my utter regret that I was not favoured with any situation be-I have till lately resided in Dunbarton.

which I had unwillingly left being unable to carry on my maintenance in such a strange place. It is remember that the Collector of Rajahmundry has been pleased to write to you to send him some eligible persons for employing in his District which I hope must be true - as it can't afford me an opportunity of providing to your dependants with some means of livelihood I thought this a proper opportunity for me to beg your honour the favour of your recommending me to the above Officer to take me into his service. which act of benevolence would extricate me from the present distressful Condition I know well that I must not often trouble you with my Epistolic addresses but being helpless and destitute of any other protection I am unavoidably compelled to take this liberty trusting that I shall be pardoned for the same.-
