Replies

8 His past service from 8th September 1849 to 31st March 1864 is proved from Records.

9th 20 No Certificate produced. His objectionable service was rejected and the last continuous service taken into account. With the exception of a suspension for 2 months and 22 days for unpermitted absence, his character during this last period appears to have been good.

29 He is entitled to 4 months gratuity or 60 Rs., but in the way of making allowance for his dismissal and suspension, a months gratuity was deducted, and the remaining 3 months pay recommended to be granted.

Applicant will be eligible to a gratuity of Rs. 60 equal to 4 months salary under the old rules, should Government be pleased to accept the explanation given by the Collector in the register of application with reference to the delay in submission of application.

The attention of Government is respectfully drawn to the Collector's explanation given in item 29 of his reply dated 27th July 1868 with reference to the cause of his recommending the applicant for the grant of 3 months' or gratuity instead of for 4 months.
