Sir,

I have the honor to draw your attention to para 2 of G. O. 269 of the 9th September last.

S. Venkataswamy Naick
therein referred to has been thrown out of employ by reduction of Establishment and he obtained a gratuity
in 1863 evidently for his long service.

His claim to compassionate allowance is as good as the 9 cases in which sanction has been accorded.

I request to be informed
how it was ascertained that this Naick resigned his appointment one year

VIDE { your } Docket Office Letter No. 919 dated 6th Inst 1867.

The remark quoted in the above Docket was erroneously entered opposite the name of Veneathasamy Naick late Peon of the Trivellore Police in the list of gratuity which accompanied the letter from this Office No. 29 dated 3rd June 1863. The remark in question was applicable to another individual of the same name who was also included in the list sent by the Subsdar of Trivellore but to whom no gratuity was recommended he having made over his duty in his son's name one year before the amalgamation.

Collector

Veneathasamy the present applicant has served 30 years & his conduct was good throughout as stated in Mr. Thornhill's letter dated 1st ultimo.

OFFICIAL MEMO

The undersigned has the honor to forward the accompanying correspondence which has taken place between this Office and the Collector of Madras, ⁱⁿ reply to the Governor in Council, with the remark that as the Collector in his letter of the 19th ultimo No 279 states that the entry in remark column of the Gratitude List of 1863 was intended for another individual B of the same name who made over his duty to his son one year before the amalgamation, and on whose account no application for gratuity or Compassionate allowance was ever made, the present applicant Venkatasawmy Naik who appears to have done his duty up to the date of reduction of Establishment, is eligible to Compassionate allowance.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

dated 9th Sept^r 1867 N^o 269. ^{Read again Proceedings of Govt}
Read ^{also} the following letter Papers.

From the Collector of Madras (Here enter 19th December 1867 N^o 268)
From the Examiner of Claims (— " — 14th January 1868 N^o 30)

Order thereon 8th February 1868 N^o 31.

It appears from the correspondence forwarded by the Examiner of Claims that the refusal of Government in their order N^o 269 of the 9th September, 1867
to grant a Compassionate allowance to Venkataswamy Naik late Peon of the Madras District, was based upon erroneous information.
This person's name was entered in a list of Peons for whom gratuities were recommended in 1863 with the remark that he had had resigned in his son's favor a year before the revision. On this ground a Compassionate allowance was refused him.

3. It now appears that the note should have ^{been} appended to the next name on the list, and that Venkatasawmy Naik continued in employ until the revision was carried out.

Is this Mr. Fane's explanation?
Is it not that the entry was appended to a person of a similar name?
WVZ

4. This being the case, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to pass to J. Venkatasawmy Naik, a Compassionate allowance of Rupees 2-8- per mensem with arrears from the 11th December 1863.
