To

The Honorable F. S. Ellis, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government

Honorable Sir

I humbly and respectfully beg to submit that I find myself unable to discharge my duties efficiently owing to the infirmities of old age and I therefore beg to tender my application for permission of your honor to retire on pension. I have served the Government for a period of 35 years and three days of which nearly 33 years and five months have been passed in grades qualifying for pension. I have no means of support left me save what the bounty of your honor bestows on me and I most humbly crave your honor will be pleased to recommend my case for favorable consideration.
