Translation of a Takeed iſsued to Tippoo Khan Sub Magistrate of Matapolliem, by Mr Thomas, under date the 14 March 1861 No 7.

1B

You are removed from the above Office. There is no sort of fault on your part. You will be provided with another appointment. Matapolliem is much frequented by European travellers, and consequently there must be a Sub Magistrate at that station poſseſsing a knowledge of English. You are to deliver over charge of Office to Veerasundram Pillay, and proceed to Coimbatore.

The Honorable R.S. Ellis C.B.
Chief Secretary to Govt.

Sir,

1 One Tippookhan, a Cultivation Inspector in Palladum Taluq, proposes to retire on pension on account of old age and bodily infirmities. Before forwarding his application through the regular channel, I deem it right to submit a doubtful point in connection with his case, and request the orders of Government thereon.

2 Tippookhan's services amount to 38 years, 5 months and 22 days (vide accompanying list of Services), of which 22 years and 26 days do not count for pension, as during that period he served in the capacity of a Deloyet (Peon) and Duffadar. The remaining service of 16 years - 4 months and 26 days is not continuous, but has been completed in two different periods, the intermediate break being 3 years and 8 months, caused by his Services being dispensed with while Sub Magistrate of Matapolliem in March 1861, not on account of any fault of his own, but because Mr Thomas the then Collector thought that a place like Matapolliem frequented by European Travellers to and from the Hills required a Sub Magistrate poſseſsing a knowledge of English, which Tippoo Khan had not. Translation of a Takeed iſsued to him is enclosed for the perusal of Government. He held the Office of Sub Magistrate of Matapolliem only two months, i.e. from 14th January to 13th March 1861, previous to which, he was employed as a Cutwal at that Station for 1 year, 2 months and 9 days. This latter Office was abolished on the 14th January 1861 by the creation of a new Office of Sub Magistrate according to Mr Pelly's Scheme, and Tippookhan appears to have been allowed to hold the newly created Office protempore, till a fit man could be procured. A circumstance which is fully borne out by the fact that two months after the creation of the Sub Magistrate's Office, Tippookhan's services were dispensed with. He was re-employed by Mr Grant as a Cultivation Inspector in November 1864. It occurs to me that under these circumstances he must be considered as having lost his appointment by the reduction of establishment. I request the orders of Government as to whether I am correct in this view, in which case, his first period of Service may be taken into account towards his claim for pension, as provided in para 14 of the Pension Rules dated 13th April 1864 No 1915 published in the

Fort St George Gazette 3d May 1864 -

If, on the other hand, his first period of service (11 years, 9 months & 20 days) is to be excluded merely because of his removal from his temporary employment as Sub Magistrate after the abolition of his permanent post as Cutwal, he will have no claim for pension for his subsequent service amounting to $\overset{yrs}{3}$ - $\overset{ms}{4}$ - $\overset{days}{6}$. A gratuity of only three months' Pay can be granted, which would amount to 75 Rupees - a poor compensation in consideration of his long service and advanced age of 70.
