I Charles James Rogers Acting Surgeon, 3^d District, do hereby certify, that T. Gundaiaiyar, Esq., Manuscript Librarian of the Office of Director of Public Instruction, Madras, has been under my treatment for fourteen days for cancer of the Tongue; and that he is not likely to derive permanent benefit from further treatment, or from change of air. He is, in my opinion unfit for further service; and to the best of my judgment, such disqualification is not the result of intemperance or other irregular habits.

By order of Council 19 Oct - 1895

Order thereon 21st November 1888 No 396

It appears from the Register above recorded that Timothy Sundaram Iyer, late Librarian of Oriental manuscripts, has served in grade qualifying for pension 15 years, 3 months, and 2 days. He is certified to be disqualified for further service from a cancer

MA

[Signature]

I do not think the Medical Certificate which refers to a local cancer is sufficiently explicit. The man has served just a few days in excess of the minimum period cancer on the tongue, and under the Revised Pension Rules is eligible to a pension of Rs. 13. 4-4) Thirteen and Annas four per mensem.

2 The Medical Certificate is dated the 23rd July, but Gundasawmy Iyer was not relieved from duty until the 1st August, because, as the Director of Public Instruction explains in his letter of the 7th ultimo No. 2160, he allowed the man to attend at the Library "merely to round off the period of his attendance."

3 The Director will be informed that the retention of Gundasawmy Iyer of 15 years having attained to pension.

Can 14 days treatment of such a cancer justify an official officer in continuing a public servant on the pension roll?
I would call on the Inspector General to determine the expediency of this before pension is granted. W.D.N.

I venture of the malady is distinctly affirmed: for Iyer in his appointment after he was certified to be unfit for further service is directly opposed to the Orders of Government. 4. Adverting to the insufficiency of the descriptive marks alluded to by the Examiners of Exams, the Director of Public Instruction is requested to obtain and furnish to the Accountant General a more detailed statement of the marks. Meanwhile, His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the grant to Tirumany Gundasawmy Iyer of a pension of Rs. 13. 4- equal to a third third of his average salary for the five years prior to his retirement.

3 The salary paid
