To
HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE
LORD FRANCIS NAPIER, BARON NAPIER, K. T.,

GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

The humble Memorial of N. C. GOPALACHARY, Treasurer, Collectorate of Bellary.

SHEWETH,

Your Memorialist in submitting his case to your Lordship, humbly begs that it may receive such consideration as the circumstances may seem to your Lordship to deserve.

1st. Your Lordship's Memorialist is a servant of Government of 15 years standing, held the responsible posts of Tahsildar, &c., (Vide enclosure marked A.) and is now employed as Treasurer in the Collector's Office of Bellary, on a salary of 125 Rupees a month.

2nd. While your Lordship's Memorialist was employed in the Revenue Settlement Department on special duty in the early part of 1863, chiefly superintending the demarcation of boundaries and classification of soils for assessment in the adjacent villages of Nullamala Hills in the Kurnool District, his health and sight began to fail from constant exposure to the sun, (which he was obliged to do to push on the work,) and consequently obtained his present stationary appointment on the recommendation of his superior the Deputy Director, (Vide Testimonials marked J and Y.)

3rd. From the hot climate of Bellary (to which your Lordship's Memorialist was a stranger,) and the heavy Treasury duties* your Lordship's Memorialist had to perform being a large Military Station the attacks of fever were more frequent and which subsequently brought on symptoms of impairment of vision in April 1864. Your Petitioner consequently obtained sick leave for two years, and came to Madras for treatment in the Eye Infirmary, and is now advised to retire from service, (Vide remarks by Dr. Smith, Superintendent of the Eye Infirmary, in the enclosed register of application for pension, marked X.)

4th. Your Lordship's Memorialist has served in most special and responsible appointments and completed his 15 years service, inclusive of the sick leave of two years he now enjoyed, which cannot be counted as service to entitle him to pension by the new Rules, but begs to lay his sad case for your Lordship's favorable consideration and to be provided with special pension as a matter of grace on the following grounds.

1. Your Lordship's Memorialist on the eve of obtaining an high promotion has lost his vision in the performance of his duties, (Vide Proceedings of the Madras Government, marked V.) and Testimonials P. Q. and Y.

2. Although your Lordship's Memorialist has completed 15 years service, inclusive of the two years sick leave which was unavoidable from illness was entitled by the Rules to one year's furlough, three years sick leave and one month's privilege leave in each year, yet he did not enjoy any of these benefits, except the two years sick leave now granted.

3. Your Lordship's Memorialist's services in special appointments, his faithful and diligent performance of his duties, his good conduct and character and causes of his present unfortunate illness, happened in the discharge of his special duties will be apparent to your Lordship from the enclosed copies of certificates, and letters, and from the remarks in the accompanying register.

5th. In conclusion your Lordship's Memorialist humbly begs to state that he has a large family and four young children entirely dependant on his labour, and as your Lordship's Memorialist saved no money, but endeavoured at all times to maintain his character, and the high estimation in which he was held by his Superiors, (which he considers of infinite more value) sees no alternative left, with a view to educate and maintain his children, than to lay his deplorable case for your Lordship's special consideration, in the hope that your Lordship will grant your Memorialist a good Service Pension.

For which act of grace your Lordship's Memorialist shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

BELLARY DISTRICT,
ANANTAPORE,

14th December 1866.

N. C. GOPALACHARI.

* In addition to these duties he was appointed a Member of the Municipal Commission of Bellary, Vide F. S. G., dated Novr. of 1863, page and also discharged the duties of Honorary Secretary to the Commission.

Copies of Testimonials of N. C. Gopalachari, Treasurer, Collectorate of Bellary.

B. MY DEAR MR. BALLARD,

The Bearer of this was a Tahsildar in Rajahmundry when I was there, and appeared to be smart and intelligent. He is now employed under you in the Survey Department, and asked me for a note of introduction to you. I have at his request given him this paper to tell you what I know of him.

To

G. A. BALLARD, Esq.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WALTER ELLIOT.

MADRAS, 20th November, 1858.

C. MY DEAR MORRIS,

Gopalachary, late Tahsildar of Tadimullah requested me to give him a note to you (not of an introduction, for I believe you are acquainted with him) but to secure your countenance and support.

Mr. ——— was rather hasty or over anxious which induced Gopalachary to resign his post, and is engaged under Newill for the important duties. There is nothing against Gopalachary in the papers, and as his antecedents are very good, I believe he will be a valuable assistant to Newill.

To

H. MORRIS, Esq.

Your's Sincerely,

(Signed) J. GOLDINGHAM.

MADRAS, 24th April, 1858.

D. GOPALACHARY,

I have received your letter of the 22nd. It is not in my power at present to aid your advancement; but you need not be discouraged. You are, as you say, out of the regular line of the Revenue service, but you are not on that account out of the way of promotion. On the contrary those who distinguish themselves by good service in such special duties, are more likely to get on than if they had been in the ordinary routine employments. Make it your endeavour therefore to give satisfaction to Mr. Newill, and to your immediate superior—who I think is Mr. Morris—by a diligent and faithful performance of your duties, and in due time you will be pretty certain to attain promotion. But I would caution you against that impatience which many young men now-a-days display, when they see some whose claims they think inferior to their own preferred before them. You may depend on it that it will be more for your happiness, to do your duties in quiet waiting.

Wishing your full success and prosperity in such a course.

I remain, Your Friend,

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON.

TAHSILDAR,

I.

I have much pleasure in hearing that you are exerting yourself to collect specimens for the exhibition of the different kinds of Timber obtainable in your Talook, as soon as you can complete the collections of specimens, &c., forward them to me without delay. From there being much jungle in your Talook, it appears to me that you might be able to obtain specimens of Gums, Dyes, Tanning stuffs and articles entered under the head of Animal kingdom. I forward herewith an English list, and if I can procure it, shall send you a Telugu copy. I shall also be glad if you could procure a list of the Drugs and Medicine used by Native Doctors, sending me specimens of any that are not to be procured commonly in the Native Bazaars.

J. MY DEAR SIR,

N. C. Gopalachary, an Inspector in my Department, has very earnestly begged me to give him a line to you as he is ambitious to obtain the appointment of a Tahsildar in your District. I observe that he has a very encouraging endorsement from you when he was brought to your notice by the Reverend Mr. Johnstone. Gopalachary is an intelligent man, and has done his work very well under me, and Mr. Pritchard the Assistant under whose immediate supervision he has worked, also gives him a very excellent character.

L. MY DEAR GREME,

I have been asked by Gopalachari the Cashkeeper here to write you a few lines to let you know what my poor brother's opinion of him was during the time he served with him. I can only say that during 5 months whilst I was staying at Guntoor with my brother, he always spoke of him as the best worker with him, and looked upon him as his right hand man. I used frequently to see Gopalachari, as the Revenue Settlement parties were then working in the Guntoor and Crosoor Taluques, and consequently Gopalachari must be well acquainted with Guntoor which I suppose is a point in favor of appointing him Tahsildar, which is I believe the vacant post he is anxious to get. On his being tired of the moving life in the Revenue Settlement, my brother's influence got him his present post. From what I have seen of him myself he seems a very well educated and intelligent man, I trust you will excuse my writing to you, but I should be really glad to hear of the advancement of a man who I know my poor brother was very partial to.

Gopala Chari was attacked with fever and severe delirium at Bellary in 1854. This was followed by impaired vision. In March 1864 the fever recurred and vision failed still more. A third attack left sight much damaged. He came under my treatment on the 5th July 1864. I found that most serious damage had been done to the interior of both eyes. Atrophy of the choroid and posterior staphyloma of both eyes. Several operations have been performed, but his sight, though slightly better than it was, is permanently and most seriously damaged. The disease is the result by natural causes, and is not the result of any vice or imprudence—this sad case well merits special consideration. (Signed) GEO. SMITH, M. I most respectfully beg to say that when I had the fortune of paying my personal respects to your honor, in April last with Mr. Smith's kind note, I have represented my circumstances and although the Govt. had kindly refused the question regarding my leave to the Indian Government, yet it was at last to my great misfortune decided that I belonged to which I have right cannot be in continuation of such leave and therefore I was favored with special leave, which allows no salary. As I said nothing but my character in all my respectable and responsible appointments. I feel very deficient to maintain & educate my children in these days and therefore submitted a memorial to the Right Honorable the Governor praying praying for Special pension, which I have forwarded to your honor for the favorable consideration of Govt. Mr. Middleburn, who visited this place in the middle of this month on his family tour, has been kind enough to address your honor recommending my case for the Special consideration of Govt.

This letter was drafted and copied on the 15th instant and as Mr. Middleburn left this on the very day to another place Pennacook, it was not signed here, but I have now from Pennacook that Mr. Middleburn has called upon the Lucas County Deputy Collector to send a copy of the list of my services to accompany his letter and therefore waited for it, to dispatch his letter to your honor. I think as the offices have now their Christmas vacation, the letter very probably will be despatched about the end of the 1st week of January. Your honor is aware that my application to Government for Special pension is not on the basis of the period of the service, but on the ground that I have lost my sight in the discharge of my special duties, which may be well said: Your Special consideration but also I stand as a grace I have to me for the protection and education of my helpless children entirely dependent upon my labor, and I therefore request your honor to take my case into your favorable consideration and grant me help in obtaining my prayer for a pension, not less than half of the salary I receive as of my present office as Cashier.

In conclusion, I have to enclose for your kind perusal, a note which I have received from Honorable G. St. Taylor Esq. to whom I have forwarded a copy of my memorial before its submission to His Excellency. and request you
