Regret I am not in a position to comply with the request of the Police authorities, and certify whether the men were known down through no fault or accepted of their own" or not.

Probably this request had proceeded from a recollection that the medical Officer of a Regiment in bringing depositions before an Invaliding Committee was professionally an opinion to the above effect

But the case is entirely different from these mendicant Regiments the medical Officer had means either from testimony of others, or from inspection of medical Records, of ascertaining in the most reliable manner the habits of life, and also the diseases from which he may have suffered in his opinion, and is also able to give reasons reasond for it. Now, in the instance of these men, the case is quite different. I have only seen them on the day they pre=sented themselves to me. I know nothing of their habits, or diseases previously suffered from, and were I to form and express any opinion beyond the condition in which I actually find them, it would be both a hap-hazard, and reckless proceeding on my part.

I am unable therefore to certify to any thing regarding them, beyond what I can observe at the time of examination.

I think it will be thus clearly seen, that however useful it might be to have a certificate to the above effect, I, at least, am not in a position, to form any opinion on the matter.

periods varying from 5 to 8 years in the Police, their general character has been good and they are now unfit for further service as certified by the local medical officers. I beg therefore the sanction of Government for the grant to each constable of one month's pay for each year's service.

3. Some of the medical certificates bear dates subsequent to those on which the men were discharged. This has been caused by the necessity of calling for revised certificates. Correspondence with the District officers has caused delay in submission of the Rolls.

4. The Superintendent of Police Coimbatore states that the delay in submitting Rolls was owing to the necessity of getting the required information from the Revenue Department.

5. It will be remarked that the medical certificates granted by the Civil Surgeon Chittoor do not contain an opinion as to whether the individuals examined have or have not become unfit for further service by their own imprudence. In explanation of this omission, I beg to annex extract from a
