The Paymaster Presidency
Sir.

I. A. Moorea Pillay a Pensioner, and late Surveyor in the Commissariat Department at Madras beg. very respectfully to bring to your kind notice that I proceeded to Virudachellum in the middle of January last to visit my daughter who was then attacked with cholera and was myself suddenly taken ill from Febry to November 1867 by dysentery. Owing to my old age, weak knees and shortness of sight, and not having had a male member in my family, save myself to aid me to draw my Pension from such an unknown place as Virdachellum.

I never appeared before your honor to draw my Pension from January last. I have this day reached Mexico.

I beg your honor will cast your compassionate eyes on me to excuse my long absence, and direct the payment of arrears of Pension to be paid to me.

I remain

Sir,

Your most Obedt & Humble Servant
