PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 21st September 1863.

Read the following letter from G. L. MORRIS, Esq., Acting Collector of South Canara, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Mangalore, 3rd September 1863, No. 172 :—

1. I have the honor to report on Board Petition No. 2,990 of 1863 (herewith returned) from M. C. D'Rozario, a Clerk in my Office, complaining that he has been unjustly degraded from a post of 30 Rupees per mensem (which was given to him when his brother was murdered by rebels in 1837) to one of 20 Rupees, on the mere report of the Deputy Collector that he had delayed the preparation of certain Trade Returns, and because he did not attend the Deputy Collector's house on a Sunday.

2. As the late Acting Collector has left no Memorandum of any kind regarding the subject matter of this complaint, and of his reasons for reducing Petitioner to a lower appointment than the one he previously held, I have been compelled to take a statement from the Deputy Collector on the subject, and beg to forward it for the Board's perusal.

3. I beg to add that I learn from inquiry generally in the Office, that Petitioner was formerly in the habit of indulging freely in liquor, and that this was the real cause of his degradation.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.
STATEMENT.

1. Agreeably to your orders to report on the circumstances which led to the degradation of English Clerk Mr. M. C. Rozario from a situation of Rupees 30 to 20 Rupees pay, I beg to state as follows.

2. The Board of Revenue sent stringent orders for the early transmission of the monthly Trade Returns, and with the view of meeting their wishes the then Acting Collector, Mr. Hodgson, entrusted the work to me, with instructions to report to him any slight negligence on the part of the servants that would interfere in carrying out the orders of the Board. The accounts of one month (I do not now remember which) were ready on a Saturday, rather late for the post of that day, and as they could not be detained until Monday without incurring delay, which would have attracted the notice of the Board, I directed Mr. Rozario to come up to my quarters after attending the Church as usual and taking his meals the following day (Sunday) so that we might sit together, complete the accounts, and post them on that day, and knowing well his accustomed indifference to orders, I warned him that inattention to my orders would undoubtedly be reported to the Collector, who was then out in the District. Mr. Rozario did not however appear at the required time, and though I tried to do the work myself, and to send the accounts to the post on Sunday, I found them so inaccurate that they were necessarily delayed until the next Monday, when in reporting to Mr. Hodgson the despatch of the accounts on that day, I found it necessary to notice Mr. Rozario's disobedience to my orders.

3. Mr. Rozario was, as he states, employed in the public service under the circumstances stated in his Petition to the Board of Revenue, but I must conscientiously say that instead of appreciating the bounty of Government, and improving himself in the knowledge of public business, at least in an ordinary way, he has indulged himself in the most detestable vice of drunkenness, so much so that I regret to say this has been the chief cause of his not having had any promotion during the lengthened period of 26 years' service. He has often appeared in the public office so shamefully intoxicated that I have found it necessary on many occasions to send him out of it for the mere sake of decency. In fact, I may say his vicious habits have been long tolerated, and had it not been for the present inexcusable instance of gross disobedience and carelessness, his shortcomings would have remained unnoticed.

4. Mr. Hodgson was personally acquainted with almost every servant in the Office, and among others with Mr. Rozario, the present Petitioner to the Board of Revenue, and it is not without previous and repeated warnings generally that he took the present step of punishing him somewhat severely, by degrading him to an inferior post as he did: and on the eve of his departure when Mr. Rozario appealed to him for clemency, alleging that he had abandoned his vice (which however is too deep rooted in him), he was told by Mr. Hodgson that he should be highly thankful to him for the correction, which had resulted from the measures he had adopted regarding him, and that the only good he could now possibly do him was to advise him to be careful in future, so as not to lose even the 20 Rupees appointment to which he had reduced him.

MANGALORE, 1st September 1863.

(Signed) J. F. FERNANDEZ, Deputy Collector.

ENCLOSURE No. 2—Petition.

Under the circumstances reported in the above letter and its enclosure, the Board resolve to pass the following Endorsement on M. C. Rozario's appeal. But they must observe that the Deputy Collector had no authority to order the attendance of a subordinate functionary at his quarters to transact official business on a Sunday:—

"The Board learn that the punishment of which Petitioner complains was not imposed on account of a single fault, but for general neglect of duty, persisted in for a length of time, in spite of repeated warnings. The Board therefore order that the Deputy Collector be reprimanded and trust that the loss of salary he has undergone will have a salutary effect in improving his conduct."

Sub-Secretary.

In reference to the report of the application for suspension of duty on account of illness during the absence without leave, I have the honor to state that the entry of the period of the Applicant's absence without leave in 1864 & 1865
 was not made in the journal column, simply because it was considered that the said entries were not intended to show this description of absence.

The footnote on the first page of the Register
 clearly shows that the absence was not on leave but without leave, and that the applicant was fined for such absence by the stoppage of his full pay. Hence, the absence in question cannot not properly be treated as leave, and as it
 heading to the column of absence without leave.

and the Bureau for accounting only such absence as related to leave without pay. If a full stoppage of pay, I did not deem it necessary to enter the above absence
in the leave statement.

The applicant was absent about
1 month, 14 days - 2 days leave only for 14 days
2 1/2 days at 1/2 pay - 1 1/2 days
as shown in the margin.

The stoppage of pay
is considered paid in the light of a fine
for unauthorized absence, the period of such absence was not also deducted from the applicant's length of service, as, even if it were, it would not have made any material difference, since the applicant's service
for pension would still amount to a period of 20 years. The fine was, however,
not taken into calculating the applicant's length of service for the pension.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

...of the Minister of Finance...
...of the 26th June 1868...
...of the 1st December 1868...

Plaza de San Juan, 18 Dec. 1868. 432

The applicant, Mr. M. B. Delosario was formerly a clerk in the office of the collector of South America. He obtained this post in May 1867 in place of his brother who was murdered during the 1867 Insurrection, and the situation was given him instead of conferring a pension on the family of the deceased man.

2. He seems to have been during 31 years, but to have been degraded for more than a year and a half for a clerical duty. He was under general suspicion of being...

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side]

(2) This degradation reduces his average of salary from Rs 250
to Rs 210. But the Collector
on account of his brother's government service begs that he may have half his salary, instead of half
his average salary.

3. This recommendation the Government cannot accede to,
the petitioner's service has not been such as to call for commendation, and in passing him
the full pension allowed by the rules, the Government
are giving him his full due.

They resolve to pass a
