Examiner of Claims

Madras

Sir,

1 I have the honour with reference to your Memo. of the 7th June last, to send herewith, 36 Registers of applications for compassionate allowance to peons with all the particulars you require.

38

2 The great delay in submitting these registers in the first instance, has arisen thus. A notice inviting all peons who were thrown out of Employ to appear at the Collectors Office for the preparation of the Registers was published throughout the District in 1864, but the peons only appeared in the latter part of 1865- Their registers were accordingly prepared with much difficulty as the information relating to services was defective in many material points-

3 These Registers having been returned by you as incomplete in certain particulars, information had to be called for, from the talooks and fresh registers prepared - just as these were ready for despatch, a new form of Register of application for pension was published in the Fort Saint George Gazette- A supply of the new forms was accordingly indented for and received from the Superintendent of Stationery towards the end of December last - The Registers were then prepared in the new form -

4 . The number of Registers
Four originally sent was 34 Two other Four
peons having since appeared, their registers have also been prepared and are herewith forwarded-

5 Your Memo: quoted at the opening of this letter is agreeably to your request, returned with my original letter of the 14 May 1866 No 5.

I have the honor to be
