Read the following,

No. 633.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Pensions and Gratuities.

To

THE ACTING CHIEF SECY. TO THE GOVT. OF BOMBAY.

FORT WILLIAM, the 21st January 1868.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 30th December 1867, No. 1587, submitting the recommendation of the Government of Bombay, that under the existing rules for pensions to Uncovenanted Servants, service in acting appointments may be allowed to count towards pension.

2. The Governor General in Council observes, that as a person on a permanent establishment who may be appointed to act in another situation is entitled, by virtue of his substantive appointment, to count towards pension the period of employment in the acting situation, an alteration of rule is unnecessary for this class of servants. With regard again, to servants who may be appointed to act in offices higher than their own, at any time during the last five years of their service, it would, owing to the frequency of acting appointments, be exceedingly inconvenient to allow them to reckon their pension upon the higher allowances received during the period of acting employment, especially as the permanent holder also would compute his pension upon the substantive pay of the appointment.

3. But persons not permanently enrolled on any Government establishment who act for absent Uncovenanted Servants in eligible grades, and others employed in ineligible grades who may be appointed to act in eligible grades, may count for pension, the period of officiating service provided that they are subsequently confirmed, and that the absentees are not allowed to count towards pension the period of their absence, whether as regards allowances on retirement, or the period of qualifying service.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

E. H. LUSHINGTON,

Secretary to the Government of India.

ORDERED, that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the several Secretariats, the several Local Governments (Government of Bombay excepted), the several Administrations, the Director General of the Post Office of India, the Mint Master, Calcutta, the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, the Comptroller General of Accounts, the several Accountants General, and the several Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.
