Report of the Examiner of Claims.

ORDER THEREON, 7th April 1868, No. 96.

The above is an application for good service Pension on behalf of Minachinada Pillai, Assistant Salt Superintendent in Tinnevely. This person entered the service in 1829, but was dismissed in 1835, forfeiting his past service. He was again employed in 1836, and was twice suspended subsequently, from 2nd September to 3rd October 1838, and from 5th September to 4th November 1840, for remissness in collection of revenue and neglect of inspection of cultivation. Subsequently, in 1852, he was reduced from the post of Peshkar on Rupees 21 to that of Chowkedar on Rupees 17-8-0, being suspected of abetting certain person in falsely charging some Kavalgars.

2. An application for pension was sent in, and he was relieved from duty on 31st October 1866, but as it appeared that his service did not amount to thirty years, he was reinstated in April 1867, and continued employed until January 1868. The period of absence will be considered as absence on leave without pay.

3. His service for pension is thirty years, one month, and twenty-four days, and his average pay has been Rupees 20-4-11, he is therefore eligible to a pension of Rupees 10 ; but he has been three times suspended or degraded. It is true that the last punishment took place sixteen years ago ; but the Government cannot wholly overlook his previous repeated misconduct, and are therefore pleased to pass to him a reduced pension of Rupees (9-8-0) nine and Annas eight, payable from the 1st February 1868 from the Tinnevely Treasury.
