1. With reference to the remarks of the Examiner of Claims regarding the accompanying application of H Zan Kovaursing and Ramjee. The Undersigned has the honor to give the following explanation.

No 7 - They were broken down thro' no fault or excess of their own. —

No 10. No record forthcoming of H. Zan Kowour Sing's services in the jail from 1st April 57 to 30 June 60 except in January 60 in which month his name appears in the Pay Bill or "Baravurd." —

No 11. — As regards the degradation on 1st Nov/48, it would appear from the Jail Records that he was only acg. as Duffadar for 1 month - after which he reverted to his grade of Peon.

As regards the other on the 7th May 1854 - it would appear from the above Record that he was reduced as a Punishment for striking one of the Convicts.

No 20. The Gratuity Rolls submitted shortly after they were discharged were all returned for want of Medical Certificates - which Captain Reid the late Supdt. had not obtained. The Certificates were obtained in October and Rolls submitted but not on a proper form. They were returned from Chief Office and proper Rolls again forwarded. thus the delay was caused —

No 23. — The above explanation will answer this objection: —

No 24. Ramjee was acting for another boy Limbajee - in whose name - Pay was being drawn and paid to Ramjee - in Nov/55 the boy's name disappears (from what cause not known) and Ramjee is Confirmed. —
