Takud No 832 dated 11th April 1263 Fasli, issued by G. Pelly Esquire Collector of Bellary to Madame Vashagere Rao, Washkeeper.

Whereas Trukhat Rao, Washman of the Moon--ship Division of the Adoni Taluk, had been directed to investigate and report regarding a complaint preferred by some of the Ryots of Moonships against the village officers thereof, stating that they had furnished them with receipt books, and he has falsely reported in the accounts relating to the examination of sums received from the Ryots, that books which had not been produced were produced, and has also made another false report on the same subject, he has been suspended for two months from this day forth. You will therefore exclude his name from the Baranur.

This is to Certify that I have this day examined Benkara Row Gonsale in the Parish of Adoni I am of opinion that he is worn out from Hd. age and length of service. I am in reason to believe his Condition due to overwork or intemperate habits. He has not been under treatment nor is he likely to benefit from it I consider him unfit for any further service

ORDER OF GOVERNMENT 8th April 1868

Wentworth Bennett

Wentworth Bennett is now 68 years of age, and is certified as fit for further service. He has been 24 years in public employment, the whole in pension grades. His average pay is £13-1. His conduct has been good, with the exception of one occasion in 1834, when he was suspended and for two months for making a false report with respect to a revenue inquiry held by him.

The Pension Council cannot wholly approve this misconduct, and hence, resolved to grant Wentworth a reduced pension of £12-6-4, per annum, payable at the St. John's, bearing from the 15th August 1867.

Collection of Wentworth Bennett Accountant General with the Register 1868.
