PUBLIC TESTIMONIALS,

This is to certify that "William Johnson," Clerk of St. John's Church Trichinopoly, has conducted himself entirely to my satisfaction for the last three years, in his situation, above mentioned, and that I believe him to be an honest and sober man, and well qualified to perform the duties required of his Office.

HENRY DEANE,
Chaplain of Trichinopoly.

15th January 1838.

This is to certify that William Johnson, Clerk of St. John's Church Trichinopoly, gave me the greatest satisfaction in the general discharge of his duties during a period of eight years on which I held the appointment of Chaplain at the Station. He was of the greatest service to me in his impartial enquiry and recommendation of objects of charity.

HENRY DEANE,
Chaplain.

April 4th 1843.

Mr. Johnson was known to me for a period of twelve months as Clerk to the Church at Trichinopoly; in that capacity he gave entire satisfaction.

W. H. STUART,
Chaplain.

FROM CHURCH RECORDS.

Memo.

July 8th 1850.

In handing over charge to Mr. Morris, I cannot forbear recording, as I now do, my sense of the conduct of Mr. Johnson the Clerk during my 13 months' residence here—I have found him always at his post of duty; always respectful and attentive; and as School Master at the Pootoor School apparently very diligent. The cash account of that Institution he has kept with the most punctilious accuracy.
