Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 13th January 1869.

Read the following papers:—

From the Acting Collector of Madras, dated 18th July 1876, No. 132.

No. 192.

Report of the Examiner of Claims.

As the applicant appears from the letter of the Collector, dated 23rd November 1868, No. 226, herewith accompanying, and from the Orders of Government, dated 15th February 1862 and 25th May 1866, Revenue Department, Nos. 337 and 1,241, respectively, to have been employed as a permanent Gumastah in the Abkari Department for only four years and ten months from 1st March 1862 to 31st December 1866, he cannot, under the old rules, be granted gratuity for that service; and, as he appears, from the records of this office and from the letter of the Collector above referred to, to have been employed as Gumastah in the Abkari Temporary Establishment from 17th August 1846 to 28th February 1862 and paid from the amount sanctioned by Government for extra charges, that period cannot reckon for gratuity.

2. His service of upwards of twenty years, therefore, did not qualify him for any remuneration upon retirement.

3. Soondra Moodelly's application was recalled by the Collector on the 15th August last as he has been re-employed.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
8th December 1868.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

To the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George.

ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1869, No. 7.

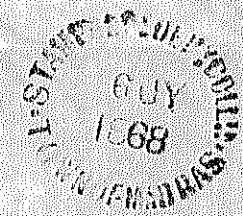

The applicant Laulpettah Narrainasawmy Naidoo's service up to 28th February 1862 appears to have been wholly in a temporary establishment giving no claim for pension or gratuity, and the subsequent period, which alone can be reckoned, amounts only to four years and ten months; hence the applicant is not entitled to any allowance whatever on retirement.

By Collectors of Madras District To,
The Examiner of Claims.

Sir, I have the honor to submit for the sanction of Government, applications for gratuity of two of the Government Bandy shop Camakapillays of the Madras Town Akkary Department, who were thrown out of employ in the abolition under orders of the Board of Revenue 28th September 1866 No. 6976.

2. They made the application rather late, hence the delay in submitting this recommendation.

3. Their affidavits are enclosed.
4. Medical certificates are not required in their case. See Notification

Madras

Vide enclosed memo from your Office dated 17 August 1868 returning 1 Rep of application for gratuity for Narayansamy Naidoo, a brandy shop Conicopellay for want of nos 11-13-29 no 11. While Paymaster of the 3^d Abkarry Division on 12 Rs pay the Conicopellay was so ill as to be unable to go on with his out door work he was therefore retransferred to his former post of Brandy shop Conicopellay on the lower salary at his own request. hence the deprecation no 13. The application is now submitted in the required form.

The name of Narainasami no 29 Kaidoo was not shown in the annual returns from 1826 to April 1856 as his service then as Brandy shop Camis holy was of a provisional nature. His name was nevertheless entered among the 4 Camispolies employed for the sale of Brandy as stated in the monthly account particulars of Abkarry Extra Charges for that period. His appointment as Camispoly from May 1856 to February 1862 was also of a provisional nature and no separate vouchers appear to have been forwarded to the late Civil Paymaster during this period shewing the applicant's name or the appointment of the Brandy shop Camispoly. His service from March 1862 was however reckoned to be of a permanent character. vide Govt Pro: no 337 dated 15th February 1862 & no 1241-12 May 1866

The monthly pay abstracts from July 1862 exhibit the number of the Abkarry Camispolies as 29 but do not show their names and those from July 1864 give the names without distinguishing the Brandy shop Camispolies from others.

Narainasami Kaidoo has thus rendered his service partly in ineligible and partly in qualifying grades, he is therefore recommended for gratuity only under the rules.
