ORDER THEREON, 31st March 1869, No. 115.

Parasavakom Kumarasami Mudali, late Conicopoly in the Abkarry branch of the Establishment of the Collector of Madras, was removed from the public service on the 16th October 1865, on the ground of his being unable from old age to serve any longer.

2. On the date of P. Kumarasami Mudali's removal he had served 27 years, 10 months, and 2 days. His character and conduct during this period are stated to have been "honest and faithful."

3. It appears from the letter from the Collector of Madras, dated the 23rd February 1869, No. 39, that P. Kumarasami Mudali was advised to take immediate steps for obtaining his gratuity, but that he neglected to do so in the hope that he might be re-employed, or that his nephew, an unpassed candidate, might be nominated to his appointment of Conicopoly; that after a time he ceased to frequent the Collector's office, and that he did not again make his appearance until August 1868, when he was sent to a Medical Officer to obtain the required certificate.

4. The cause of the delay, from August 1868 to the 21st November 1868, the date of the submission of the application for a gratuity, is also explained by the Collector in his letter above referred to.

5. The medical certificate shows that P. Kumarasami Mudali's age is, by his own statement, sixty-five, and that his appearance corroborates that statement. He was evidently unfit for further work when he was removed from his appointment on the 16th October 1865, and was eligible for a gratuity.

6. Under these circumstances His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the grant of a gratuity of Rupees (60) sixty to Parasavakom Kumarasami Mudali.

Dated 23rd February 1869

From
E. R. J. Esq: Collector of the Madras District To
W. Donald Esq: Examiner of Claims Madras
Sir

I have the honor, in reply to the enclosed memo from your Office dated 6th ult, to state, that Kumara Sany Mudali, formerly employed on the 15th October 1865, having been found unfit for further service by reason of old age and was advised to take immediate steps for obtaining his gratuity; it appears, however, that for some days he did not do so, but frequented the Deputy Collector's Office, at Madras, with the hope that he might be re-employed or his nephew, an unpassed Candidate, get his birth. Seeing his request was not likely to be complied with he ceased to frequent the office and did not again make his appearance till August 1868, when he did so, he was sent to a medical officer to obtain the required Certificate and on its production the Deputy Collector made his recommendation for gratuity on the 15th idem. It was subsequently found in the office that a portion of the period of his service had been verified in the office of the Deputy Collector.

The man was called upon to obtain and forward an affidavit for the remainder. This again was not obtained till the 21st of October as the man was again absent; but when obtained it was sent 11 with the register completed to you on the 21st of November

As thus the delay requiring Explanation in your letter of the 6th of January, appears accounted for, I trust the poor man will now get his gratuity.

I have the honor to be, sir,
your most obedient servant
