ORDER THEREON, 8th April 1869, No. 127.

In the foregoing application, gratuities are recommended for six peons who were thrown out of employ on the introduction of the New Police force in the District of North Arcot in 1859. Of the six peons, one is stated to have died in 1863, and another in 1865. Of the remaining four, three are eligible to gratuities and one to a compassionate allowance.

2. In the register, the Collector has only allowed a gratuity of Rupees 13-8-0 for the last-mentioned peon, on the supposition that, owing to a break of ten months in his service, his claim to any allowance for his previous service of 21 years, 3 months, and 13 days, was forfeited. The records do not show the cause of the break, and as, under the Rules, the break does not vitiate the previous service, the peon will be eligible to a compassionate allowance of Rupees 2-8-0 per mensem from the 11th December 1863.

Sir,

In returning your Memo dated 25th ultimo and its enclosure, I have the honor to offer, the following explanation, to the several objections therein contained.

A 27. Vellore Kristnaji did not apply for gratuity in his life time but his son, Yengo. Now put in an application on the 16th March 1868, in which he mentioned that his father had died 5 years ago.

A 29. This remark, it is presumed, relates to Vellore Gopalai, Peon, in the Vellore Police office. His service previous to 19th March 1849 was not taken into account as the cause of the break in the service prior to that date could not be ascertained from the records.

Ranga, Duffadar, in Vellore Salug.

and whose name also stands in the Register under reference did not put in his application during his life time but in that submitted by his son, Venkatachellam, on the 20th March 1868 he mentions that his father had died nearly 3 years previously.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,
