ORDER THEREON, 12th April 1869, No. 133.

It appears from the application for gratuities above recorded, that Subba Naick, late a Police Peon on the establishment of the Collector of Madura, was thrown out of employ, after a service of 25 years, on the reduction of establishment in 1860. He was suspended for a period of six months, from 11th January to 10th July 1851, for "certain misconduct in a case of murder."

2. Khader Saib, the other Police Peon named in the application, was similarly thrown out of employ after a service of nearly 7 years.

3. The Government accept the explanation afforded by the Collector in his letter dated the 25th February last, No. 346, regarding the cause of delay in the submission of the application, and sanction the payment of a gratuity of Rupees (12) twelve to Khader Saib, and of a reduced gratuity of Rupees (20) twenty to Subba Naick, as his conduct during his period of service was not entirely satisfactory.

it is usual with servants of the class referred to, when thrown out of employment; to wait for some time before applying for a gratuity or pension with a view to re-enter the Service of Government & that it is only as a last resource that applications are made for gratuity or pension as the case may be.
