Report of the Examiner of Claims.
(Here enter 9th April 1869, No. 47.)

ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1869, No. 138.

In the foregoing application, gratuities are recommended for five warders of the Vellore Jail, the first four of whom were thrown out of employ in consequence of a reduction of establishment, and the last on account of physical unfitness for further service.

2. Under the authority granted in the resolution of the Government of India, dated 31st October 1862, No. 874G, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to admit their affidavits in respect of their respective period of service, which cannot be verified either in the records of the Vellore Fort Jail Office or in the Office of Audit.

3. These affidavits show that the warders have each served for upwards of twenty years, and the Government are pleased accordingly to grant to each of them gratuities equal to six months' salary, as specified below, under the old rules :—

In the year 1845 I was employed as a Jail warden in the Cuddalore district jail on a salary of Rs 5 1/4 a month, when some of the convicts from that jail were transferred to the Chittoor jail in 1846 when I accompanied them and remained in Chittoor in the same employ. In 1848 I accompanied the convicts from Chittoor to Vellore. After I came to Vellore my pay was raised to Rs 7 a month a few years ago.
I was promoted to Sub warden of the Cuddalore jail, on a salary of Rs 8 a month. I was discharged from it in October of the current year. I am unable to give the month & date of my appointment. nor have I any record to do so.

I was employed in the year 1845 as a warder in the Chittoor Jail on a salary of Rs 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ per month. I don't recollect the month & date. I remained in the same employment in the same station for 3 years. I was transferred in 1848, to the Vellore Jail where I continued my service for the space of 2 years. I was discharged from my duty in October last. During my service in this jail I was paid Rs 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ per month for some time and my pay was afterwards raised to 7 Rs a month. I have

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of your Office Memo dated 21st January 1869, returning the papers connected with the case noted in the margin, I have the honor to state that delay occurred in the submission of the application till January 1869 for the following reasons.

1st - The services of the applicants were not obtainable from the records of this Office. It was subsequently ascertained that some records were believed to be in existence in the Sub Collector's Office which might give the requisite information and application had then to be made to the Sub Collector who was absent in the District and had not his Office with him.

2^d - It was understood that the declaration had to be made before the Sub Collector & recorded in the English language. It was only on the Sub Collector's return to Head Quarters it was ascertained that the affidavits might be taken in the Vernacular. It would appear moreover from their now being
