ORDER THEREON, 11th May 1869, No. 151.

The service of Kassim Khan, late Warder in the District Jail of Tanjore, extends over a period of twenty-eight years, and he was discharged on reduction of establishment. He would, therefore, be eligible to a gratuity of Rupees 42, equal to six months' salary under the old rules. He was, however, during the term of his service, five times suspended, on the last occasion for negligence, which endangered the life of a prisoner, and his character and conduct are reported to be unsatisfactory. Under these circumstances, the Governor in Council resolves to grant to him a reduced gratuity of Rupees 30.

Memorandum
No 75.

With reference to item No 29 in the accompanying memo from the Examiner of Claims the undersigned begs to say that from the form of Register he understood "Total period of Service" to mean the time between date of Entertainment and date of discharge just as to Service for promotion is calculated as from date of Commission and not according to the actual period passed in service. And that the details as to "How long - unemployed" required in the adjoining Column appeared to confirm this view.
