Accountant General,

Honored Sir,

With due respect and submission, I humbly beg leave to inform your honor, that I served in the late Civil Pay Office, and also in that of the Accountant General as a Writer, for a period of about 5 years, and was unfortunately thrown out of employ, in the revision of 1866. I have been all along in up. Countries, for search of employment, being disappointed in my several attempts to obtain the desired end, unless I pass the required General Test, I am prepared to go up for the same in the ensuing year - as it is impossible for me to prosecute the required studies, without having at least some pecuniary resource. I earnestly request, that your honor will be good enough, to recommend me to Government, for the amount of Gratuity, to which I may be entitled, for my past service. In the event of my obtaining employment, under Government, hereafter, I shall of course refund the Gratuity, that I may receive.

For which act of kindness, I shall always be thankful.

I have the honor to be,

Honored Sir,

Your most Obedient & Humble Servant.

M. Somasoodram.
