Memo:

returned

With reference to the Memo. from the Examiner of Claims dated 8th April 1869, the undersigned has the honor to state that the delay in submitting the application herewith returned was owing to its having been supposed that the man would be re-employed, no application for gratuity would then be necessary.

But many years have passed away since the man was thrown out of employ and as he has become old and there is little chance of his re-employment hereafter, the application has been submitted.

E. J. Adams
Acting Collector.
