Report of the Examiner of Claims.
(Here enter 12th May 1869).

ORDER THEREON, 17th June 1869, No. 183.

The Civil and Sessions Judge of Nellore submits an application for pension in favour of D. Runga Row, late Fouzdari Translator in his Court. The applicant's service for pension up to the 11th December 1868, which is the date of the medical certificate, amounts to twenty-five years, six months, and twenty days ; but he was retained in the service till the 30th April 1869. The medical certificate was countersigned by the Deputy Inspector General on the 13th February.

2. The Civil Judge explains that the reason of this retention was the difficulty of obtaining a qualified candidate for the post, and that he kept Runga Row in employment pending the result of the examination which he was about to hold being known, and he states that, had he not overlooked the order that no person should be retained in employment after being certified by a medical officer to be unfit, he would have applied for the special sanction of Government to the arrangement made.

3. The Government cannot accept as satisfactory Mr. Cockerell's explanation of his having retained D. Runga Row on the establishment for four months and twenty days after he had been certified to be unfit for further service, and are unable to relieve him from personal responsibility for the amount of salary which has been disbursed to Runga Row for that period. The Accountant General will arrange for the recovery of the amount from Mr. Cockerell.

4. D. Runga Row was reduced in 1856 from the post of 2nd English Writer on 35 Rupees to that of Criminal Record-keeper on 30 Rupees ; but the records contain no explanation of this degradation. There is nothing on record against Runga Row's character, and the Governor in Council is pleased to grant him a pension of Rupees 25, a moiety of his salary as Fouzdari Translator during the last five years of his service, with effect from the 11th December 1868.

This was an over-sight. X

The Notifications were not brought to my notice. Had my attention been drawn to them I should have sought the sanction of Government (Uncovenanted Servants' Code Regulations, Section 87, page 14) to the retention of Runga Row until the first instant. There are no passed candidates in this District, and this being the case I intended to promote my Criminal Record Keeper to Runga Row's office, and to make a person who recently acted in the place (then temporarily vacant) Criminal Record Keeper. When I submitted Runga Row's application neither of these individuals had passed the tests required for the respective posts. They have now been examined, and I am daily expecting to hear the result. I postponed Runga Row's surrender of office with a view to holding the above examinations, anticipating the result would be communicated to me at latest latest by the first of May.

The oversight on the part of the establishment of my Court of the Notifications referred to, was favoured to some extent by the circumstance that no officer on the Establishment has been pensioned on Medical Certificate since 1863 when the 2nd English Doctor retired.

2 The Civil Judge explains that the reason of this retention was the difficulty of obtaining a qualified candidate for the post, & that he kept Runga Row in employment pending the result of the examination which he was about to hold being known. He states that had he not overlooked the order that no person should be retained in employment after being certified by a Medical Officer to be unfit, he would have applied for the special sanction of Government to the arrangement made.

3. The Government cannot accept as satisfactory Mr. Lockrell's explanation of his his having retained D. Runga Row on the establishment for 4 months & 20 days after he had been certified to be unfit for further service, and unable to relieve him from personal responsibility for the amount of salary which has been disbursed to Runga Row for that period. The Accountant General will arrange for the recovery of the amount from Mr. Lockrell.

4. D. Runga Row was reduced in 1856 from the post of 2nd English writer on 35 Rs to that of Criminal record keeper on 30 Rs, but the records contain no explanation of this degradation. There is nothing on record against Runga Row's character & the Governor in Council is pleased to grant him a pension of Rs 200 per annum.
