ORDER THEREON, 22nd June 1869, No. 189.

T. Muttusami Pillai, late Sayer Ameen on the establishment of the Collector of South Arcot, has served twenty-one years, eight months, and thirteen days, and is certified to be unfit for further service. The Collector recommends him for a pension of Rupees 6 per mensem, but according to the report of the Examiner of Claims he is entitled to Rupees 6-8-0 per mensem.

2. He was suspended for three months and four days in 1851 for "having aided an emigrant maistry who collected emigrants to Bourbon, and degraded in 1855 for passing a quantity of indigo without levying duty. Though the terms of the Collector's "Explanation of column 8" seem scarcely warranted by the order of suspension, which does not charge aid given to a particular emigrant maistry or on a particular occasion, yet as the order distinctly alleges neglect of proper precautions against the illegal transport of emigrants, which precautions the applicant was ordered to carry out, and as he was degraded on a subsequent occasion for a grave neglect of duty, the Government do not see fit to grant to him a pension of higher amount than that recommended by the Collector.

3. The medical certificate is dated 19th February 1869, and the pension sanctioned will run from the 20th February. The Accountant General will recover from the Collector the excess of pay above the pension drawn by the applicant from the 20th to 28th February, during which period the applicant was allowed to remain in the service though certified to be unfit for further duty.

Order

It has come to my notice that the village Headsiff of Taldavoor apprehended one Para Konyan and others of the village who were about to proceed to Pondicherry & detained them in Custody for 2 or 3 days at the Sayer Chavady & that he afterwards sent them to Pondicherry, and finally shipped to Bourbon. It has also been disclosed during the enquiry held by me that the Maistries from Pondicherry are in the habit of fraudulently abducting several men women and children through Taldavoor taking them first to Pondicherry & then shipping them off thence. It is therefore clear that you, who are a public servant, must have aided and abetted the Maistries for you have not taken proper precautions

Explanation of Column 8 with quotations of orders of reinstatement.

The Applicant was under suspension from 8th August to 10th November 1851 for leaving his post on an unauthorized basis. He collected assignments to Bombarde as per order of the Collector, No 6 dated 8th August 1851.

Explanation of any degradation.

The Applicant was degraded to Lower appointments on two occasions. On the first occasion, which was on the 10th November 1851, degradation was intended as a punishment for having passed some quantity of indigo without leaving duty. On the 2nd occasion, the transfer to the lower appointments was made at the request of the Applicant & not as a punishment & this appears from the Letter issued by the Deputy Collector Salt Sec. Department on that occasion.

Remarks by the head of the Office on past character and conduct of the applicant throughout the service.

The conduct of the Applicant appears to have been good except in the two instances mentioned, having been suspended on one occasion & degraded on the other. His service extends to more than 21 years and as there is nothing else in record against him, the Collector recommends him for a monthly pension of Rs (6) six to which he is entitled under the Rules & though the one third of the average salary for the past 5 years amounts to Rs 6-10-8, the Collector recommends that the pension be granted at the pensionable rate of Rs 6 - the medical certificate of
