*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,
9th July 1869.*

Read the following letter from the Acting Inspector General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 2nd March 1869, No. 1238.

In forwarding the enclosed application for pension from 1st Class Inspector M. Nagalinga Mudaliar, I have the honour to solicit the indulgent consideration of the Government to the case of this old, faithful, and devoted public servant. After such testimony from Mr. Robinson on his behalf, but little is required from me or Nagalinga's immediate superiors. I most cordially, however, reiterate all that they have said in his favour.

2. I, too, have known his work for ten years; no matter when, or where, or what called upon for, ever able, ready, and willing was he. He has now completed more than thirty years' honest and faithful service.

3. With reference to the last paragraph of Mr. Robinson's memorandum, I most earnestly support his recommendation.

4. The applicant's unaided, single-handed devotion in the earlier years of this department unquestionably saved the Government a large sum, and he has broken down in health before he has earned the half-pension of his present appointment.

5. Under these circumstances I would solicit sanction for a special donation of Rupees 1000, and the presentation to Nagalinga Mudaliar of a gold badge, or bangle of the value of Rupees 100 with some suitable inscription.

From the Superintendent of Police, Coimbatore District, to the Acting Inspector General of Police; dated Coimbatore, 25th February 1869.

I have the honour to enclose an application from M. Nagalinga Mudaliar, the Head-quarter Inspector of this district, for a good-service pension.

2. He is, as you are aware, quite broken down in health, and I trust you will support my recommendation that the pension be granted.

3. You have known Nagalinga well for many years, and it is not necessary that I should enter on the question of his deserts; but I would at the same time desire, as his official superior, to express my opinion of him and his services.

4. I have known him since about 1860, and since the beginning of 1867 he has been Head-quarter Inspector under me in Coimbatore. He has shown himself the most honest, earnest, single-minded, hard-working servant of Government I have ever seen, and I trust he may get the pension as I consider him most deserving.

In forwarding this letter, I beg also, as an old Police Officer, to bear testimony to Nagalinga's valuable services. I have known him since 1860, and a more enthusiastic, zealous, hard-working servant of Government I have never seen; no hardships ever deterred him from doing his work. I trust he may receive from Government some recognition of his services in addition to the pension he has earned.

(Signed) H. D. CLOETE, Captain,
Deputy Inspector General.

From M. NAGALINGA MUDALI, 1st Class Head-quarter Inspector of Police, to the Superintendent of Police, Coimbatore; dated Madras, 22nd February 1869.

I most respectfully beg to lay my case before you, with the confident hope that you will give it your best consideration and support.

2. I have served the Police Department for about thirty-four years, during which period my health suffered much owing to the many trying services in which I was employed in the several offices in the Police Department. My present state of health is such as would not allow me to take upon myself the labour and responsibility attached to the office of Head-quarter Inspector in such a heavy district as Coimbatore.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,
9th July 1869.*

3. I request that you will take into your consideration my past services with the Inspector General in the organization of the Police, the troubles I underwent in the Railway case at Chittoor, the labours you have personally witnessed on several occasions in many districts while on tour, and, last of all, my services in public capacity as your immediate subordinate.

4. In the present state of my health I am anxious to retire on a good-service pension.

5. I, therefore, earnestly request that you will kindly recommend me to the Inspector General of Police with a view to my obtaining a good-service pension, which will enable me to preserve my health and to live respectably as a retired Government servant.

MEMORANDUM.

I wish to record a memorandum of testimony in respect to the earnest, faithful services of M. Nagalinga on his seeking pension preparatory to retirement from the public service.

2. The first years of the re-organization of the Police service were years of great toil and much research in every district in the Presidency; constant travelling from one end of the land to the other was, therefore, the lot of my office, and I had the utmost difficulty in procuring the services of a native willing or equal to the work. Several were tried, but all broke down either in health or ability for the duty. And any one at all acquainted with the kind of duty involved must know how difficult it is to procure the services of a man in this country for it.

3. M. Nagalinga joined me in July 1859, and, single-handed, did for years all the work of a very arduous travelling office. Night after night was spent on the road followed by a hard day's work. Consequent fatigue and even sickness never withdrew him from duty in which he could not be re-placed, and I must bear deliberate testimony that, throughout a long-working life in the service of the State, I have never met a subordinate native servant of Government who combined the same degree of earnestness, self-sacrifice, and self-denial with honesty and good abilities for the work he had on hand. Nagalinga learnt the work of a Constable, and taught and worked with them, while he impressed the truthfulness and vigour of his own character on the higher grades with whom he mixed. The Police service owes him much. The Government work was done by him as I have rarely seen it done, and I myself owe him most for the faithful and considerate manner in which he lightened my labours for years. Our old officers all knew his work.

4. Fever and exposure reduced M. Nagalinga's vigour, and he accepted the post of Head-quarter Inspector in Coimbatore in October 1864, and worked there with failing health for four years with much earnestness. But he has been beat; his health is gone, and he retires a more aged man than he ought to be at his years, the result of years of hard life.

5. I beg that the Acting Inspector General will kindly lay this before Government with M. Nagalinga's paper, for I think his services merit some special notice and reward, (he has saved Government thousands of Rupees by his diligent single-handed labour,) and certainly deserves this public record of them at my hands.

From the Officiating Cantonment Magistrate, Bangalore, to the Examiner of Claims, Fort Saint George; dated Bangalore, 1st April 1869, No. 3.

In returning the enclosed certificate received with your Official Memorandum, No. 293, dated 22nd ultimo, I have the honour to state that Nagalinga Mudaliar was paid from the date of his entertainment as writer from the fixed establishment of the office sanctioned by the Mysore Government, as appearing in the records of this office.

2. At first the establishment of the Superintendent of Police was in the Military Commissariat Office of this station, and some years afterwards the office was separated. The pay of the establishment, office-rent, contingencies, &c., was paid from the monthly collection of the Abkari revenue of this cantonment, which was under the control of the Commissariat Officer here. All bills and abstracts of this office were chiefly audited in the Dufter Department of the Mysore Commission, as was done to all other offices of this province.

From the Deputy Accountant General, Mysore, to the Examiner of Claims, Madras; dated Bangalore, 17th May 1869, No. 444.

In reply to your Official Memorandum, No. 351, of 7th April last, addressed to the Commissioner of Mysore, I have the honour to enclose a copy of a further letter, No. 86, dated 14th May current, from the Cantonment Magistrate of Bangalore, and to add that the establishment of the Cantonment Police Office was apparently of a permanent nature; but it was not customary, prior to the year 1862-63, to obtain the sanction of the Supreme Government to establishments of any kind.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,

2. The practice of paying the Bangalore Police establishment out of the Abkari collections made by the Superintendent of Police, who was also Commissariat Officer, and remitting the surplus only to the treasury, was probably authorized by the local Administration of that period as a convenient arrangement, though not in accordance with usage elsewhere; and the Commissioner's Dufter reports that the pay abstracts from 1837 contained the name of Nagalinga Mudaliar.

3. On the separation of the Police duties from the Commissariat, the establishment abstracts appear to have been discharged direct from the Public Treasury.

4. The enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

From the Officiating Cantonment Magistrate of Bangalore, to the Deputy Accountant General of Mysore; dated Bangalore, 14th May 1869, No. 86.

With reference to your docket, No. 349, dated 10th instant, I have the honour to inform you that the Abkari Department of this cantonment was under the control of the Military Commissariat Officer and Superintendent of Police up to June 1847; the collection of the Abkari revenue was made by this office and remitted to the late Bangalore Division after paying the pay of the Police establishment and contingencies, rendering the usual account for the same, after which the amount required for the payment of the establishment and contingencies was drawn from the Division Treasury on receipts, and adjusted afterwards by rendering accounts.

2. The Bill Book, No. 7, from October 1846 to May 1849, herewith sent, will afford every information, and request the same may be returned when no longer required.

I hereby certify that Myla Nagalinga Mudaliar's service in the Cantonment Police Office, Bangalore, as appeared in the records, is as follows:—

ORDER THEREON, 9th July 1869, No. 208.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is clearly of opinion that M. Nagalinga Mudaliar, on whose behalf the foregoing application is submitted, is entitled to count towards pension his service, after 22 years of age, in the office of the Cantonment Magistrate of Bangalore, amounting to twenty-one years and nine months, during which period he was paid from the Abkari revenue of the Cantonment. His Excellency is, therefore, pleased to grant to him, under Section 7 of the Revised Pension Rules, a good-service pension of Rupees 80 per mensem, being a moiety of his average salary for the last five years of his service. The pension will be paid at Madras, and will date from the 1st May 1869.

2. In recognition of the excellent service which Nagalinga Mudaliar has rendered in the Police since its organization in 1859, and of the high character he has always borne, to both of which the Inspector General, Acting Inspector General, and other Officers under whom Nagalinga has served have borne emphatic testimony, His Excellency in Council has much pleasure in sanctioning the presentation to him, on behalf of Government, of a gold bangle of the value of Rupees 100 bearing a suitable inscription, which the Inspector General of Police is requested to prepare and submit for approval.
