Sir,

I have the honor to request that should there be no objection, copies of Government Orders sanctioning payments to the Police may be sent to the Magistrate of the District in which the payment is to be made, for his information and guidance.

2. In G. O. Pension Department No. 169 dated 15th June 1869 a gratuity was sanctioned to be paid to a constable in the Cuddapah District, and an application was made for it by the Superintendent of Police. As however no copy of the Order had been received by the Collector or Magistrate reference had to be made on the subject
