Memorandum

The undersigned has the honor to report in reply to official Memorandum in the Pension Department No 13 dated 31st ultimo that the three Wardens of the Frichins-poly district jail were retained in the service for one month after the receipt of the letter directing their discharge because the Superintendent considered that they came under the operation of para 162 of the Jail Rules which provides that when the services of a jail servant are discontinued except for misconduct he shall be entitled either to a month's notice or a month's pay. Such a construction does not appear to be correct with regard to men recommended recommended for gratuity or Compassionate allowance.
