Memo No 254

Memorandum No 3370 dated 1st

June 1869

The Superintendent of Police Bellary has the honor to state that Head Constable Chalasoo appears to have been discharged by the Superintendent of Police on account of physical unfitness but without obtaining any Medical Certificate to that effect or with any view of recommending him for gratuity.

The Head Constable applied to the Revenue Department in which he was formerly employed for gratuity and an application for the same duly supported by a Medical Certificate was forwarded by the Deputy Collector of Bellary to the Examiner of Claims. This Certificate has been lost.

The applicant has been again examined by the Garrison Surgeon whose certificate is forwarded in support of the application for gratuity signed by the undersigned as requested.

recommended for gratuity by the Police authorities. Some time after, it does not appear how long, the head constable applied to the Revenue authorities for gratuity for his service in that department, and an application supported by a medical certificate was forwarded to the Examiner of Claims, but the application was returned by that officer in order that certificate of discharge from the Police might be submitted. This was done but the application was finally sent back to the Collector's office on the 9th May 1869, with reference to Official Memo-

- memorandum

Memorandum of the 28th May 1868, No 14, which directed that applications similar to this present one should be forwarded by the Police authorities. In these repeated transits the original medical certificate appears to have been lost, and a fresh certificate dated 23rd June 1869 is now submitted.

2. Thus a delay of three years has occurred, and though dates of all the correspondence are not given, it appears clearly that the Examiner of Claims is responsible for a year of it. The Government have so frequently and anxiously impressed upon all officers the importance which they attach attached to a speedy disposal of pension cases that they cannot but regard the delay in the present case as highly unsatisfactory. Had the orders of 14th June 1864 N^o 368 and 20th November 1865, been kept in view the man's discharge from the Police would probably not have been as summary as it was, no medical certificate having been obtained and the Superintendent of Police having had no intention of recommending him for any gratuity.

The Inspector General of Police will direct the Superintendent to ascertain from the Collector's Office the dates of the correspondence, and if possible, that of the original medical certificate.

3. The Government, however, without waiting for this information will, under the circumstances, accept as proved, the incapacity of the head constable Obalesu at the time of his discharge in 1866;
and accordingly are pleased to grant to him under the old rules and with reference to the Orders noted in the margin, a gratuity of six months pay or Rs. 84.
