Sir,

In retransmitting your Memo dated 14th Instant and its enclosures, I have the honor to offer the following explanation in regard to the several objections therein contained

No. 8. The necessary explanation has now been inserted in the Register of application of Velliah Chetty.

No. 18. No gratuity was drawn by Sikary Kistnappah for his past service in consequence of the abolition of the additional Sub Collector's Office in 1858.

No. 23. The delay in submitting these applications is partly owing to the peons having only put forward their claims between January and March 1868 after the publication of the notification of the Board of Revenue dated 15 November 1867 and partly to the difficulty met with in verifying their services from the old Records at Head Quarters and in the Taluk Cutcherries.

No. 28 Copy of the Government Order referred to is herewith sent.

No. 32. Altered accordingly.

Extract from the minutes of Consultation under date the 10th July 1857.

Read the following letter from the Magistrate of North Arcot.

Submits for the information of Government Copy of a letter from the Joint Magistrate together with Copies of decisions passed on two charges of abuse of authority. } (Here enter 23rd June 1857 No. 37.)

Abdul Hakim, Cutwal of the Town of Arcot, and Appavoo Moodelly, the Munsiff of the Town, have been convicted by the Joint Magistrate, of having, in 2 instances, misused their authority by improperly handcuffing and retaining in custody for 15 days some parties charged with rioting on an occasion which brought the right and left-hand castes into antagonism. The sentence of the Joint Magistrate also charges these 2 Officers with partiality, and with having allowed the opposite party to treat the prosecutors with some degree of indignity while in custody.

2 The Cutwal and the Munsiff were accordingly punished by fines, commutable to imprisonment if not paid. They were also discharged from their situations, and the joint Magistrate in his letter reporting the cases to the Magistrate, observes "that it will remain for the Government to determine whether they are at any future period to be re-employed"

3. On considering the circumstances of the case and the punishment which these 2 servants have received for their irregular conduct, the Government will not object to their re-employment, but leave this point to the discretion of the local authorities.
