individually was obtained until May 1869 or 18 months after his discharge, under a misapprehension of the Superintendent of Police at North Arcot that he was not entitled to any gratuity as he had served in the Police less than 7 years.

2. From the Memorandum enclosed in Major Hearn's letter it appears however that the applicant was examined by ~~the~~^{together with some other} Medical officer, and a single certificate of incapacity furnished for all in order to their discharge. This certificate or a copy of it should have been submitted with the present application. The Government however accept the explanation of

of the delay; but desire that the Ag. Inspector General will in future take care that the officers subordinate to him become acquainted with important orders of Government relating to their Department. The Govt. have had to remark upon this subject in a recent order on a case similar to the present one.

3. His Excellency in Council is pleased with reference to the orders noted in the margin to sanction the payment to Lutchmudu of a gratuity of six months pay or Rupees (36) thirty six.
