monthly salaries of the District Post

The runner was thrown out in the reduction of Postal Establishment consequent upon Mr Kelly's revision This accounts for the explanation called for No 37

The Examiner of Claims, Fort Saint George.

Sir,
In reply to your letter of the 16th ultimo, I have the honor to submit the following explanation on Nos. 13 and 21.
No. 13. A fresh application prepared on printed form under the old rules is forwarded.
No. 21. This individual was thrown out of employment on the 1st September 1866. On 9th January 1867, he applied for Compassionate allowance. On 18th January 1867 his application was referred to the Sahibdar of Rajapett Taluk for the preparation of a list of the applicant's services from the records. A report was received from the Sahibdar in January 1868 on examining the the papers connected with this claim, some discrepancies were found between the entries in the service list tendered by the applicant and those in the list received from the Sakhildar, and as there are no accounts in the Angosa from which the difference could be corrected, the applicant was ordered to attend in person with the orders in his possession.

The applicant being severely ill, did not attend till 3rd February 1869. From his explanation it appeared that he was entitled to gratuity and not to compassionate allowance which he applied for. Hence the delay in the preparation of this application. The period of service verified from the records is entered in the Register.

I have the honor to be,

Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant.

The services of the within mentioned individual having been verified from the records of the Collector's Office he will be eligible to the amount of Gratuity set opposite of his name in Column 11 of the Register under the P.D. Rules should Government be pleased to accept the explanation afforded in para 3 of the Collector's reply dated 19th June 1869 set 2nd herewith accompanying with reference to the delay in submission of application
